

Project on ACCOUNTABLE JUSTICE

Public Forum:

Florida Criminal Justice Reform: 2017 and Beyond

Friday, March 3, 2017, 8:30 a.m. - Noon
FSU Turnbull Conference Center

The 2017 Florida Legislature is considering proposals that reflect the widespread consensus that Florida must reform our criminal justice system. Please join us and an exciting lineup of state and national experts for a timely discussion on criminal justice reform.

Featuring panel sessions on:

- What's Florida Considering? Current Prospects for Reform
- What's Next on the Horizon: Bail Reform?
- How Do We know it's Working? New Forms of Accountability and Measurement in Criminal Justice
- Keynote Address by Vikrant Reddy, Senior Research Fellow, Charles Koch Institute

Representatives from:

- American Civil Liberties Union
- Askew School of Public Administration and Policy
- Charles Koch Institute
- Families Against Mandatory Minimums
- James Madison Institute
- Measures for Justice
- Southern Poverty Law Center
- Pretrial Justice Institute
- Reason Foundation

FREE TO PUBLIC AND STUDENTS
Please RSVP to Dbrodsky@fsu.edu

PROJECT ON ACCOUNTABLE JUSTICE

A partnership of

Florida State University

Baylor University

St. Petersburg College

Tallahassee Community College

